

SAMANTHA DOYLE

T: (310) 789-1232
F: (310) 789-1232
sdoyle@troygould.com

BIOGRAPHY

Samantha J. Doyle is an associate in TroyGould's Litigation Department. Her practice currently focuses on general business and civil litigation disputes. Prior to joining TroyGould, Ms. Doyle was a research attorney for two judges of the Los Angeles Superior Court, the Honorable George F. Bird and Honorable Fumiko H. Wasserman (Ret.). Ms. Doyle's experience at the Los Angeles Superior Court has given her extensive knowledge and expertise in court procedure, motion practice, legal research and writing, and oral argument.

Ms. Doyle earned her Juris Doctor from Loyola Law School. While in law school, Ms. Doyle participated in Moot Court, as a brief drafter and orator, in which she and her team earned 1st place at the 2021 Pepperdine Caruso Entertainment Law Moot Court Competition.

Prior to law school, Ms. Doyle earned a Bachelor of Journalism in Advertising and Public Relations from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln.

BACKGROUND

EDUCATION

LMU Loyola Law School, JD
University of Nebraska – Lincoln, Bachelor of Journalism in Advertising and Public Relations, Minors in Communications and Vocal Performance

Accolades & Affiliations

Member of the LA Lawyers Philharmonic Orchestra and Legal Voices Choir, October 2023 – Present
1st Place at the 2021 Pepperdine Caruso School of Law Entertainment Moot Court Competition
Former President of the Women in Entertainment Law Society, Loyola Law School, August 2021 – May 2022