

JESSICA KRAUS

T: 310.789.1223
F: 310.291.4746
JKraus@troygould.com

BIOGRAPHY

Jessica Kraus is an attorney in TroyGould's Litigation Department representing a broad range of individuals and companies in matters ranging from simple breach of contract cases to high stakes business disputes. She brings meticulous attention to detail, grit, and relentless resourcefulness to every matter, big or small.

Ms. Kraus is also highly experienced in all aspects of eDiscovery, including developing efficiency strategies to streamline the discovery process and significantly reduce litigation costs for clients.

Professional Experience

Ms. Kraus began her legal career with an AmLaw 100 law firm concentrating on complex commercial litigation. She has significant experience in antitrust litigation, government investigations, consumer class actions, intellectual property and unfair competition, including trade secrets, licensing, and false advertising disputes. She has represented clients in a variety of industries, including technology, food and beverage, retail, and health care.

Languages

Ms. Kraus is fluent in French.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Defended global footwear company against claims of false advertising and personal injuries.
- Represented chip maker in global antitrust lawsuit that resulted in a US$1.25 billion settlement.
- Defended global food and beverage company in complex litigation and regulatory proceedings in various jurisdictions, including a series of consumer class actions challenging the labeling and advertising of certain health and nutrition claims.

BACKGROUND

EDUCATION

University of Pittsburgh, School of Law (J.D. 2004; Dean's Honors List; Moot Court Semi-Finalist)

Loyola Law School (Visiting Semester, Spring 2004)

Queen's University, Kingston ON, Canada (BA with Honors 1999; Economics and Classical Studies)